

Inflation Impact

Schools no longer have the same buying power as they did in 2019 when the $6,160 basic allotment was set. According to the Consumer Price Index, average inflation since 2019 has increased by 17%. That means in order to have the same buying power as they did after 2019, the basic allotment would need to be over $7,207.

+81%
General Insurance Policies

+17%
Garbage

+33%
Fuel

+12%
Paper

+17%
Health Insurance

+29.5%
School Security

+12%
Food Cost